Flammable Gas Leak Detector

Detects combustible gases as low as 50ppm with easy one button operation

Push just one button on Extech's new flammable gas leak detector, Model C052, and display flammable gas levels at 100, 1000, and 10,000 ppm. The backlighting on the display automatically switches on in low light areas. An audible indicator increases pitch tone as the concentration of the gases goes up. The meter provides auto zero on start up, 5 second response time, and battery status display. Weight: 3.5oz (100g). Dimensions: 1.5 x 10 x 1.1" (38x254x28mm).
